YOUTH INDIANA BASS FEDERATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The following points will outline the criteria and procedures for the annual scholarship awards for the IBF Youth Tournament Trails.

Each year the Indiana Bass Federations will award up to four (4) $300 scholarships to participants in the IBF Youth Tournament program. Two scholarships will be awarded for members of the North division and two in the South division. To be eligible students must meet the following criteria:

1. They must be a high school senior who is continuing his or her higher education. This can be college, technical schools or other instructional or education programs. Financial need is not a requirement for the scholarship.
2. Participated in the Youth Tournament program at least two (2) years and participated in 75% of the tournaments in their final year.
3. Students must complete the application, write an essay discussing what fishing has meant to them or to someone close to them, and submit their high school educational transcripts.
4. The application and required items must be received by an IBF officer by the December State meeting, Zone Directors will review and judge applications for their respective zones. Applications will be judged based on GPA, essay, and other criteria as determined pertinent by the Directors. While any field of study is eligible additional consideration will be given to those studies which would be beneficial to fish management or environmental improvements.
